Ceremonies

The Ceremony

Step By Step

Him, on a canoe far away.

Her, waiting on a white sand beach along with ukulele sounds, local singers and Tahitian dancers.

He comes to Her on the beach and they are both crowned with flowers.

The traditional Polynesian priest performs the ceremony in Tahitian, carries out the "Tifaifai" ritual and gives his blessing. The couple receives an authentic wedding certificate made of natural fiber.

All together, musicians and dancers will then celebrate the couple's union.
